WIND BUILDING - APT #204

Enter this uniquely designed second-floor two-bedroom through a secure hallway and into a cozy dining nook with a view. This beautiful space features a wall of glass with three full-view patio doors, providing an incredible panorama of the Fox River. Enjoy eighteen-feet of outdoor waterfront on the oversized balcony. Surrounding windows and glass panels illuminate the grand living area with natural light, while a gas fireplace rests warmly in the corner. A stunning eat-at granite island sits in the middle of an open-concept kitchen featuring an artistic design and high-end cabinetry. The first bedroom boasts large square footage with a sizable closet, and convenient access to a bathroom furnished with a large shower and granite-topped vanity. The lavish master bedroom comes equipped with two separate closets and immense square-footage providing plenty of layout options. The ensuite master bathroom offers a double granite vanity, a generous linen closet, and a spacious shower/tub combination. A laundry room complete with a full-sized washer and dryer, as well as shelving for additional storage, is just off of the angled entry. The unit is further highlighted by beautiful hardwood-style flooring and nine-foot ceilings throughout the entirety of the space. A single-car garage is attached to the secure shared hallway.
